NASHVILLE Electric Water Cure.

THE undersigned has taken the large House on the hill in South Nashville, at the head of Front street, known as the Rutilege property, where he has established a comfortable home for invalids, and provided ample means for their restoration to health. Patients from the country and strangers taken sick in the city can find gentle nursing and appropriate medical attendance. Our treatment in Chronic Diseases consists of Waler Electricity, and the most effective medicine and Homospathy in all Acute and Febrile Diseases, and in all cases our charges will be moderate and to suit the times.

The institution is located in a field of 17 acres, containing fine shade trees and pleasant grounds for exercise for convalescents. From the house, we have the finest prespective view of the city, Cumberland river, and surrounding country, afforded in any other part of the city.

of the city.

As far as regards our success in practice in the healing art, we will only say we have now been in Nashville one year, and our register will show the names of over 150 patients, treated for various diseases, most of them hopless cases of Chronic Diseases, and 31 of whom were confirmed cases of Consumption, and out of the whole number of 150 odd cases treated, only 6 have died, all of whom were given up as hopeless before I saw them, and every one of the rest have been cared, or at least greatly benefited.

For the protection of others, we can receive into this institution no patients having contagions diseases, but will attend to such at other places. Family practice attended to as usual.

Though we are opposed to publishing certificates to show that we can control diseases supposed to be in curable, we will re-publish the following letter of a well-known citizen to the editor of the Republican Banner, of Dec. 30th, 1860:

Ma. EDITOR: Having been afflicted for some months past, as is known by my many acquaintances, with an attack of parallysis, and having received a benefit as decided from the use of electrical baths, given me by Dr. Westervelt, I have thought it due to those similarly situated with myself, to make this publication. I was decidedly convalescent when I began to use the was decidedly convalescent when I began to use the oaths, but the benefit derived from them has been so positive that there could be no mistaking the cause. I am now able to use my fingers and my arms, which were entirely helpless, almost, if not quite, as well as

I know this notice may inure to the benefit of Dr. W., at least with those who place confidence in my word, but to me it is a matter of much greater inportance that my friends should know where they can be relieved from the state of helplessness I was in a short time since. Most fashionably cut, and very neatly

And as for handsome vests—he'll sell you one in a flash—

For the very least possible share of your cash.

Nor forgetting old-line Whigs and Democrats,
For whom he keeps a variety of suitable hats,
The finest caps—all fancies sure to please—

Both cloth and silk, and new style Japanese;
Handsome shirts, and splendid cravats and collars,
So to M. Powers don't neglect to bring your dollars;
For with myriads we would now dispute,
Who dare say his garments fail to suit;
Those most neat and fastidious in taste,
Who oft in badly made clothes their money waste.
But strange to say, for the very smallest sum,
You feel inclined to expend at Power's Emporium,
He will give you bargains so very rein are rare,
That will compel you for months to wonder and stare.
He keeps clothing to suit the large men and the small,
And to credit our word, just give him a call.
